

Infection control and standard precautions tutorial

(22/02/18 & 23/02/18)

1. Describe standard precautions. (definition, the measures included, instances where it applies)
2. A patient in the medical ward was suspected to have chicken pox infection.

Describe the types of precautions you would take to prevent transmission of this infection between patients.

3. The pus culture from a patient with a surgical site infection isolated a MRSA.
Describe the precautions you would take to prevent transmission of MRSA to other patients.
4. A health care worker who has had Hepatitis B vaccination several years ago, had a needle prick injury from an unknown source.
 - a. Outline the measures that you would take to prevent transmission of blood borne infections in this HCW.
5. An outbreak of Acinetobacter ventilator associated pneumonia was detected in ICU.
 - a. Outline the measures you would take to curtail this outbreak.